

World of yesterdays

-- Dopplers version --

Her: Down a golden avenue - all I see is you.

Him: Crowds are passing through - all I see is you.

All: In the world of yesterdays who knew our hearts would align now golden grains of sand falling in the glass of time
In the world of yesterday...

Him: There were days, days of everlasting pledges
how they fade, fade with the sword with two edges
such a fool, fool, too blind that I just didn't see...

Her: There were days, days of everlasting pledges
how they fade, fade with the sword with two edges
such a fool, fool, too blind that I just didn't see...

All: Where' you gonna go

Her: I'll remember you, when our time has run out!
Broken and bleeding, alone in this world without you...
